ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Miss Muriel Duncan to Lieut. Linton Herndon was announced at a prettily appointed tea given at her home in Kahului in honor of Miss Dorothy Lindsay, another bride-elect of the season, on last Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Duncan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Duncan of Kahului, Maui, and is very popular among the younger set. She has received most of her schooling in California, at Miss Horton's school in Oakland, and at Castilleja school, Palo Alto.

Lieutenant Herndon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Herndon of Washington, D. C. He is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy of the class of 1916 and is attached to the 14th submarine division at Pearl Harbor.

The Duncan home was beautifully decorated with an abundance of beautiful flowers, furnishing a pretty setting for a delightful occasion. Mrs. Gordon Lightner poured tea and Mrs. R. O. Humphrey, Mrs. William Walsh and Mrs. Duncan assisted.

The guests were Misses Dorothy Lindsay, Virginia Bradley, Frances Baldwin, Martha Aiken, Betty Lindsay, Ruth Lindsay, Gladys Meinecke, Winnie Weddick, Bernice Correll, Annie Walker, Olive Villiers, Elizabeth Walsh, Ruth Parker, Mabel Taylor, Betty Forbes of Hawaii, Dorothy Waldron of Honolulu; Mesdames William Walsh, L. J. Watson, Gordon Lightner, R. O. Humphrey, Robert G. von Tempelkey, R. F. Shaw, C. Craterton, Alfred Hansen and J. S. B. McKenzie.

MISS LINDSAY TO WED

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Lindsay to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Colville Lindsay, to Mr. Homer Rolph in Makawao Union Church, Saturday evening, September 3, 1921. Both of the young people are among the most popular of the young social set of Maui.

WILL WED IN MILWAUKEE

Mrs. W. A. Baldwin of Haiku has received announcement of the engagement of her niece, Miss Frances McLeod, to Mr. Harold Barnes of Chicago. The engagement was announced in Chicago on August 6. The day of the wedding has not been set. It is probable that the ceremony will take place in Milwaukee, where Miss McLeod's sister is living.

TAYLOR-ANJO

John Taylor, foreman of the Wailuku Sugar Co.'s garage, and Miss Gussie Anjo, of Wailuku, were married last Monday night at 8 o'clock at St. Anthony's Church, Rev. Father Justin officiating. Arthur Taylor and Miss Thelma Hazelton were witnesses to the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left on the Mauna Kea for Honolulu on their honeymoon and upon their return will make their home in Wailuku.

PAUL FASSOTH FAREWELLED

A dance was given in the community house of Hana last Tuesday evening by way of farewell to Paul Fassoth of Kipahulu, who left on Wednesday for the mainland.

The house was decorated with greens, Japanese lanterns shone upon a large number of merry young folks who enjoyed a delightful time.

Music provided by the Kipahulu Hawaiian boys was much appreciated by the guests. Refreshments were served between dances by the willing Boy Scouts and all present declared the occasion a prize event.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE

An unusually large number of members and guests attended the dance of the United Chinese Club of Maui on Saturday evening, August 13, at the Wailuku Town Hall. Many participated in dancing to the blithesome music, while others indulged in playing cards. A few merry and gleeful yells rendered by the Honolulu girls, Misses Mabel and Daisy Auyong, Miss Rose Akina and Miss Len Lam, led by Miss Rebecca Young, interspersed the different dances. Delightful refreshments were dispensed throughout the joyous evening.

Maunaolu Alumnae, Attention!

The Maunaolu Alumnae will hold a special meeting at the Town Hall on Wednesday, August 31, at 2:30 o'clock to make final arrangements for the exhibit to be shown at the coming County Fair. All members and friends who are interested please attend.

By order of the president,
MRS. WILLIAM BUCK.

ORGANIC ACT AMENDMENTS

Sec. 310. The tenth paragraph of section 73 of the Hawaiian Organic Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

For Homestead Purposes

"(n) It shall be the duty of the commissioner to cause to be surveyed and opened for homestead entry a reasonable amount of desirable agricultural lands and also of pastoral lands in the various parts of the Territory for homestead purposes on or before January 1, 1911, and he shall annually thereafter cause to be surveyed for homestead purposes such amount of agricultural lands and pastoral lands in various parts of the Territory as there may be demand for by persons having the qualifications of homesteaders. In laying out any homestead the commissioner shall include in the homestead lands sufficient to support thereon an ordinary family, but not exceeding eighty acres of agricultural lands and two hundred and fifty acres of first-class pastoral lands or five hundred acres of second-class pastoral lands; or, in case of a homestead including pastoral lands only, not exceeding five hundred acres of first-class pastoral lands or one thousand acres of second-class pastoral lands. All necessary expenses for surveying and opening any such lands for homesteads shall be paid for out of any funds of the Territory treasury derived from the sale or lease of the public lands, which funds are hereby made available for such purposes.

Special Agreements

"(o) The commissioner, with the approval of the governor, may by contract or agreement authorize any person who has the right of possession, under a general lease from the Territory, of agricultural or pastoral lands included in any homestead, to continue in possession of such lands after the expiration of the lease until such time as the homesteader takes actual possession thereof under any form of homestead agreement. The commissioner may fix in the contract or agreement such other terms and conditions as he deems advisable."

Sec. 311. The eleventh and twelfth paragraphs of section 73 of the Hawaiian Organic Act are hereby amended by inserting "(p)" at the beginning of the eleventh paragraph and "(q)" at the beginning of the twelfth paragraph.

Sec. 312. The fourth paragraph of section 80 of the Hawaiian Organic Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

"All officers appointed under the provisions of this section shall be citizens of the Territory of Hawaii and shall have resided therein for at least three years next preceding their appointment."

THE END OF ALL QUESTS

There is always a loved one we wish to remember.
And of course we do not know what to send her.
Be it for her engagement, wedding, or anniversary.
There is nothing new or unique that we can see.

We have hunted through the town.
We have looked here and there, up and down,
But, thank goodness! at last we can stop
For the very thing we want is in the New Gift Shop.

Gifts on display at Mrs. Rietow's, Kahului. Orders for gifts taken by Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Rietow. Adv.

Sec. 33. Section 85 of the Hawaiian Organic Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

District Judges

"Sec. 85. (a) That there shall be established in the said Territory a district court, to consist of two judges, who shall reside therein and be called district judges, and who shall each receive an annual salary of $7,500. The said court while in session shall be presided over by only one of said judges. The two judges shall from time to time, either by order or rules of the court, prescribe at what times and in what class of cases each of them shall preside. The said two judges shall have the same powers in all matters coming before said court."

"(b) The president of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the senate of the United States, shall appoint two district judges, a district attorney, and a marshal of the United States for the said district, all of whom shall be citizens of the Territory of Hawaii and shall have resided therein for at least three years next preceding their appointment. Said judges, attorney, and marshal, shall hold office for six years, unless sooner removed by the president."

"(c) The said court shall have, in addition to the ordinary jurisdiction of district courts of the United States, jurisdiction of all cases cognizable in a circuit court of the United States, and shall proceed therein in the same manner as a circuit court; and the said judges, district attorney, and marshal shall have and exercise in the Territory of Hawaii all the powers conferred by the laws of the United States upon the judges, district attorneys, and marshals of district and circuit courts of the United States."

In Matters of Appeal

"(d) Writ of error and appeals from the said district court shall be had and allowed to the circuit court of appeals for the ninth judicial circuit in the same manner as writs of error and appeals are allowed from circuit court to circuit courts of appeal as provided by law, and appeals and writs of error may be taken to the supreme court of the United States from said district court in cases where appeals and writs of error are allowed from the district and circuit courts of the United States to the supreme court, and the laws of the United States relating to juries and jury trials shall be applicable to said district court. The laws of the United States relating to appeals, writs of error, removal of causes, and other matters and proceedings as between the courts of the United States and the courts of the Territory of Hawaii. Regular terms of said court shall be held at Honolulu on the second Monday in April and October and special terms may be held at such times and places in said district as the said judges may deem expedient. The said district judges shall appoint a clerk of said court at a salary of $4,200 per annum and shall appoint a reporter of said court at a salary of $3,000 per annum. The clerk of the district court with the approval of the judges thereof may appoint two deputy clerks at salaries of $2,500 each per annum."

Raising of Salaries

Sec. 314. Section 92 of the Hawaiian Organic Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 92. That the following officers shall receive the following annual salaries, to be paid by the United States: The governor, $10,000; the secretary of the Territory, $5,400; the chief justice of the supreme court of the Territory, $7,500; the associate judges of the supreme court, $7,000 each; the judges of the circuit courts, $6,000 each; the United States marshal, $5,000. The governor shall receive annually from the United States, in addition to his salary, (1) the sum of $1,000 for stationery, postage and incidentals, and (2) his traveling expenses while absent from the capital on official business. The governor is authorized to employ a private secretary who shall receive an annual salary of $3,000, to be paid by the United States."

Sec. 315. The Hawaiian Organic Act is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof three additional sections to read as follows:

"Sec. 105. That no person shall be employed as a mechanic or laborer upon any public work carried on in the Territory of Hawaii by the government of the United States, whether the work is done by contract or otherwise, unless such person is a citizen of the United States or eligible to become such a citizen."

Penny Wise and Pound Foolish

Some concerns think it economy to send orders to Honolulu or to the mainland when they could be filled as well or better at home. They figure they save a few cents on the dollar by doing so and grasp at the nickel in sight.

BUT

Every dollar spent with Maui concerns passes from hand to hand, in wages, to the store, to the bank and out again into circulation, back to the concern that sent it out, again to be sent forth on its rounds. The profits accruing from the dollar kept in home circulation are many times larger than the small saving in the dollar sent away.
